

FREE WEBINAR: Researching Library Funders and Grant Opportunities

Led by Stephanie Gerding

Wednesday, April 13, 2011
2:00 – 3:30 pm (1.5 CEU Hours)

Take your grant seeking skills to the next level with the author of Winning Grants: A How-To-Do-It Manual for Librarians

Searching for grant opportunities doesn't need to be overwhelming. Becoming familiar with the different types of grant sources can help ensure that your proposal reaches the right audience. We'll cover the categories of grants and specific funders that have an interest in funding libraries and grant projects like yours. We will explore all sources including federal, state and local government grants, as well as foundation, corporate, business, service club and professional association grants. Tips and a helpful handout explaining online and print resources will help you find the ideal grant for your library.

Audience: For all types of libraries.

Brand new to grants? Ms. Gerding is also presenting "Grant Writing 101" on March 16 and 21! Visit www.infolink.org for more information.

After this program, you will be able to:

- Discover specific funders that have an interest in funding libraries
- Explore all sources including federal, state and local government grants, as well as foundation, corporation, business, service, professional
- Locate grant opportunities easily
- Gain confidence about finding grants!

About the Presenter: Stephanie Gerding is a nationally known library consultant, trainer and author on grants, training and technology topics. Stephanie has written over 20 published articles and co-authored two books on library grants. She has in-depth knowledge and practical experience with grants, having worked on all sides of the grant process as a grant writer, reviewer and project coordinator. She is co-author of the Library Grants Blog, a free resource for library grant announcements.

Note: You will receive information on joining the webinar and viewing materials after you register and in plenty of time for the program.

To register, call the office at 732-752-7720/866-505-5465, fax the registration form at the bottom of this flyer to 732-752-7785, or, go to http://www.infolink.org/services/education_and_training to use online registration.

Registration Form:

Webinar: Researching Library Funders and Grant Opportunities

April 13, 2011, 2:00 – 3:30 pm

Cost: No Charge! Deadline for registration is the day before.

Name: _____ Library/Organization: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____