Some titles we're offering include Car & Driver, Ladies Home Journal, National Geographic and Newsweek (which is no longer available in print). Freegal is a free music download service that allows Camden County Library members to download and keep up to 3 songs a week from millions of songs from ten thousand labels, including the labels of Sony Music Entertainment. New songs are added daily so there is always something new! You can also download music videos (they count as 2 downloads). See songs or videos you want to keep, but you've used up all your downloads for the week? You can now add them to a wishlist to request in the future. In addition to three downloads a week, library cardholders can stream music through the Freegal website or app for up to three hours a day with no commercials.

The downloads on this site are all in MP3 format and will play on any MP3 player, including the iPod, and can be loaded into iTunes. You can download songs to your PC and transfer them to your mobile device, or you can use the Freegal app for iPhone and iPad or Droid and download the songs directly to your device.

With IndieFlix, Camden County Library cardholders now have unlimited access to thousands of streaming film-festival hits, including the best of Sundance, Cannes, Tribeca, and more. IndieFlix is available on Apple, Android, and all Internet-enabled devices. Patrons can also watch films on TV with their Roku devices.
