

Connecting Locally

New Jersey Public Library Directors' Summit
New Jersey State Library and LibraryLinkNJ
October 24, 2017, East Windsor, NJ

Presentation by: Susan Quinn, Library Director
Ocean County Library
Toms River, NJ

Advice for New Library Directors: Finance

Ocean County Library Finance 2016

County Dedicated Tax:	$35.4 million
Salaries & Wages:	$16.5 million
Fringe Benefits:	$9.5 million
Collection:	$3.5 million
Technology:	$1.3 million
Programs:	148,000

Advice for New Library Directors: Finance

Ocean County Library Finance 2016: The Services

Registered Borrowers:	238,889
Collection Size:	1.3 Million
Circulation:	4.2 million
Number of Library Programs:	12,663
Program Attendance:	238,892
Visitor Count:	2.3 million
Reference Questions Answered:	1.2 million
Online Catalog Use:	1.3 million
Public Computer Use:	793,594
Meeting Room Use by the Public	2,936

Connecting Locally: Development

Development = Relational

Connecting Locally: Development

- Development is the building, over time, of a continuous, powerful and life-long connection between someone and your library.
- The development process includes extended research and cultivation, thorough education, and attentive planning and care.

- County Library Director reports to either:
 - Library Commission (Board of Directors)
 - County Administrator.

- County Library Directors will work with:
 - Library Board
 - Freeholders
 - County Administrators
 - Mayors and Council People
 - State Legislators
 - The Press
 - Unions
 - Friends of the Library
 - Library Foundation
 - Donors
 - Community Partners
 - Library Staff
 - The Public!

Elected Board of Chosen Freeholders: Runs the Business of the County

- Elected by voters from all municipalities in the county.
- Work with residents and municipal elected officials (mayors, council members, etc.).
- Work with County Constitutional Officers who are elected by residents in all municipalities in the County: County Clerk, County Sheriff, and County Surrogate.
- Work with state elected officials who represent the County in the New Jersey State Senate and Assembly

Elected Board of Chosen Freeholders: Runs the Business of the County

- Each Freeholder serves as liaison to a county department and/or independent county agency.
 - An independent agency has its own governing board of directors.
- Appoint a County Administrator to lead the County's departments and day-to-day operations on a budget approved by the board of freeholders.
 - Atlantic, Bergen, Essex, Hudson and Mercer, have a separately elected county executive.

Elected Board of Chosen Freeholders: Runs the Business of the County

Examples of County Departments and Independent Agencies:

Buildings & Grounds
Business Development
& Tourism
Consumer Affairs
County College & Vo-Tech
Courthouse
Engineering Department
Finance

Health Department
Human Resources
Human Services
Information Technology
Jail
Library
Management & Budget
Parks and Recreation

Planning Department
Public Information
Public Safety
Roads Department
Senior Services
Social Services
Solid Waste Management
Veterans Services

- Get to know your County's Department Heads and Professional Staff!
- Remember, people like to work with people they know.
 - Get to know them on a first name basis.
 - Show them how the Library can partner with their departments to help the County provide excellent service to residents.

Some days you will feel like your work day is a scene from a situation comedy and these people can help you.

Some days you will feel like your work day is a scene from a situation comedy and these people can help you.

Sometimes you have to work with people that you don't like - or who are difficult.

Sometimes you have to work with people that you don't like - or who are difficult.

Leslie Knope (Amy Poehler)

Tammy the Librarian (Megan Mullally)

“Pawnee’s library department are the most diabolical, ruthless bunch of bureaucrats I’ve ever seen. They’re like a biker gang, but instead of shotguns and crystal meth, they use political savvy and shushing.”

--Leslie Knope, Director, Pawnee Parks & Recreation

- Always remain professional.
 - Try to see their point of view.
 - Maybe they are just doing their job.
 - Maybe there is a good reason that they said “No.”
- You don’t have to like someone to work with someone effectively.

- Most people will help you.

"I know you've heard it a thousand times before. But it's true--hard work pays off. If you want to be good, you have to practice, practice, practice. If you don't love something, then don't do it."

--Ray Bradbury

Advice for New Library Directors: Final Words

The End