Collect Anything

Evernote® allows you to capture anything you like on the web and store it to your account. You can create a note, take a photo, upload a file, and record a memo, then save them.

Access Anywhere

Since Evernote® is a web/computer-based application, you can access all your saved information on any computer, tablet or smart phone.

Search Everything

Find any information you have stored quickly and easily. You can search by file name or tags, as well as printed and handwritten words inside of your files.
